Plaintiff, :
vs. : Case No.
GANSEVOORT HOTEL GROUP LLC, :
a Delaware Limited Liability Company, and :
TGA II, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability : Company, :
Defendants. /

COMPLAINT
(Injunctive Relief Demanded)

Plaintiff, HELEN SWARTZ, Individually, on her behalf and on behalf of all other individuals similarly situated (sometimes referred to as "Plaintiff"), hereby sues the Defendants, GANSEVOORT HOTEL GROUP LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company, and TGA II, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company (sometimes referred to as "Defendant" or "Defendants"), for Injunctive Relief, and attorney's fees, litigation expenses, and costs pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. ("ADA").

COUNT I

1. Defendants' property, a hotel named Gansevoort Park Avenue NYC, is located at 420 Park Avenue South, New York, NY, in the County of New York.
2. Venue is properly located in the Southern District of New York because venue lies in the judicial district of the property situs. The Defendants' property is located in and does business within this judicial district.

3. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1343, this Court has been given original jurisdiction over actions which arise from the Defendants' violations of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. See also 28 U.S.C. § 2201 and § 2202.

4. Plaintiff Helen Swartz is a Florida resident, is sui juris, and qualifies as an individual with disabilities as defined by the ADA. Ms. Swartz has multiple sclerosis and is mobility impaired, and uses an electric scooter to ambulate.

Helen Swartz was born and raised in New York City and visits on an average of five times a year to see shows, eat at facilities, visit family and friends, get her hair cut, and to shop at stores. Her younger daughter lives in Brooklyn and attends The New School on Fifth Avenue, her father lives in Great Neck, her brother lives on the upper West Side and her first cousins reside in New York City. When Ms. Swartz is in New York City her eldest daughter and granddaughter often take the train from Philadelphia to New York to meet her. Ms. Swartz dines out with friends and family every time she is in New York.

Helen Swartz visited the property which forms the basis of this lawsuit, and has reservations to return to the property on February 3, 2017, to avail her of the goods and services offered to the public at the property, if the facilities are fully accessible and the barriers to access have been corrected. The Plaintiff has encountered architectural barriers at the subject property, which have impaired her use of the facilities and the amenities offered, and have endangered her safety at the facilities and her ability to access the facilities' facilities and use the restrooms.

5. Defendants own, lease, lease to, or operate a place of public accommodation as defined by the ADA and the regulations implementing the ADA, 28 CFR 36.201(a) and 36.104. Defendants are responsible for complying with the obligations of the ADA. The place of public accommodation that the Defendants own, operate, lease or lease to is known as Gansevoort Park Avenue NYC, located at 420 Park Avenue South, New York, NY.

6. Helen Swartz has a realistic, credible, existing and continuing threat of discrimination from the Defendants' non-compliance with the ADA with respect to this property as described but not necessarily limited to the allegations in paragraph 8 of this Complaint. Plaintiff has reasonable grounds to believe that she will continue to be subjected to discrimination in violation of the ADA by the Defendants. Helen Swartz desires to visit Gansevoort Park Avenue NYC not only to avail herself of the goods and services available at the property, but to assure herself that this property is in compliance with the ADA so that she and others similarly situated will have full and equal enjoyment of the property without fear of discrimination.

7. The Defendants have discriminated against the individual Plaintiff and others similarly situated by denying them access to, and full and equal enjoyment of, the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations of the buildings, as prohibited by 42 U.S.C. § 12182 et seq.

8. The Defendants have discriminated, and are continuing to discriminate, against the Plaintiff in violation of the ADA by failing to, inter alia, have accessible facilities by January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993, if Defendants have 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). A preliminary inspection of Gansevoort Park Avenue NYC has shown that violations exist. These violations that Ms. Swartz has personally observed or encountered include, but are not limited to:

a. A site arrival point is not provided from the public street to the hotel entrance. This is in violation of section 206 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

b. The reservation desk is too high. This is in violation of sections 308 & 902 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

c. The computers are out of reach. This is in violation of sections 308 & 902 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

d. A maneuvering clearance is not provided to enter the hotel accessible toilet room. This is in violation of sections 213 and 604 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

e. In the hotel accessible toilet compartments and toilet rooms have mirrors that are too high. This is in violation of sections 213 and 606 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

f. In the hotel accessible toilet compartments and toilet rooms the pipes underneath the lavatories are exposed. This is in violation of sections 213 and 606 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

g. In the hotel accessible toilet compartments appropriate grab bars by the water closets are not provided. This is in violation of sections 213 and 606 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

h. In the hotel accessible toilet compartments controls are out of reach. This is in violation of sections 213, 308 & 603 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

i. The accessible stall door is not self-closing. This is in violation of section 404 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

j. Accessible hardware is not provided on the accessible stall door. This is in violation of section 404 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

k. The shower in the spa does not have appropriate grab bars. This is in violation of sections 213 & 608 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

l. Items in the spa shower are out of reach. This is in violation of section 308 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

m. The gym is not accessible to a person using a wheelchair. This is in violation of sections 236 and 1004 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

n. A bench is not provided in the locker area or in the dressing room. This is in violation of sections 222, 803 and 903 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

o. The hook is too high that is in the dressing room. This is in violation of section 308 and 903 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

p. Controls inside the accessible guestroom and bathroom are out of reach to a person using a wheelchair. This is in violation of section 308 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

q. The drapery controls in accessible guestroom require tight grasping, pinching or twisting of the wrist to operate. This is in violation of sections 309 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

r. The door hardware in accessible guestroom is out of reach to a person using a wheelchair. This is in violation of section 404 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

s. The closet rod and shelf are in accessible guestroom are out of reach to a person using a wheelchair. This is in violation of sections 225 & 811 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

t. The pipe underneath the lavatory in the accessible guestroom bathroom exposed. This is in violation of sections 213, 606 and 806 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

u. The mirror in the accessible guestroom bathroom is mounted too high for a person in a wheelchair to use. This is in violation of sections 213, 606 and 806 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

v. The roll-in shower in the accessible guest bathroom does not have a fixed seat. This is in violation of sections 213, 608, 610 and 806 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

w. The shower unit in the roll-in shower in the accessible guest bathroom is mounted out of reach to a person using a wheelchair. This is in violation of sections 213, 608, and 806 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

x. The bar in the Restaurant Asellina is too high for a person in a wheelchair. This is in violation of sections 226 and 902 of the 2010 Standards for

y. Accessible seating is not provided in the assorted restaurants and rooftop bar and lounge. This is in violation of sections 226 and 902 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

z. The hotel does not provide the required amount of accessible guest rooms. This is in violation of section 224 of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design.

aa. A person with disabilities cannot make reservations for accessible guest rooms during the same hours and in the same manner as individuals who do not need accessible rooms. This is in violation of §36.302(e)(1)(i-v)(3).

9. The foregoing violations are also violations of the 1991 Americans with Disability Act Accessibility Guidelines (ADAAG), and the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design, as adopted by the U.S. Department of Justice.

10. The discriminatory violations described in paragraph 8 are not an exclusive list of the Defendants' ADA violations. Plaintiff requires the inspection of the Defendants' place of public accommodation in order to photograph and measure all of the discriminatory acts violating the ADA and all of the barriers to access. The individual Plaintiff, and all other individuals similarly situated, have been denied access to, and have been denied the benefits of services, programs and activities of the Defendants' buildings and their facilities, and have otherwise been discriminated against and damaged by the Defendants because of the Defendants' ADA violations, as set forth above. The individual Plaintiff, and all others similarly situated will continue to suffer such discrimination, injury and damage without the immediate relief provided by the ADA as requested herein. In order to remedy this discriminatory situation, the Plaintiff requires an inspection of the Defendants' place of public accommodation in order to determine all of the areas of non-compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

11. Defendants have discriminated against the individual Plaintiff by denying her access to full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations of its place of public accommodation or commercial facility in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. and 28 CFR 36.302 et seq. Furthermore, the Defendants continue to discriminate against the Plaintiff, and all those similarly situated by failing to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford all offered goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities; and by failing to take such efforts that may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services.

12. Plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law and is suffering irreparable harm. Considering the balance of hardships between the Plaintiff and Defendants, a remedy in equity is warranted. Furthermore, the public interest would not be disserved by a permanent injunction. Plaintiff has retained the undersigned counsel and is entitled to recover attorney's fees, costs and litigation expenses from the Defendants pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12205 and 28 CFR 36.505.

13. Defendants are required to remove the existing barriers to the physically disabled when such removal is readily achievable for its place of public accommodation that have existed prior to January 26, 1992, 28 CFR 36.304(a); in the alternative, if there has been an alteration to Defendants' place of public accommodation since January 26, 1992, then the Defendants are required to ensure to the maximum extent feasible, that the altered portions of the facility are readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, 28 CFR 36.402; and finally, if the Defendants' facility is one which was designed and constructed for first occupancy subsequent to January 26, 1993, as defined in 28 CFR 36.401, then the Defendants' facility must be readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities as defined by the ADA.

14. Notice to Defendants is not required as a result of the Defendants' failure to cure the violations by January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993, if Defendants have 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). All other conditions precedent have been met by Plaintiff or waived by the Defendants.

15. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188, this Court is provided with authority to grant Plaintiff Injunctive Relief, including an order to require the Defendants to alter Gansevoort Park Avenue NYC to make those facilities readily accessible and useable to the Plaintiff and all other persons with disabilities as defined by the ADA; or by closing the facility until such time as the Defendants cure its violations of the ADA.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests:

a. The Court issue a Declaratory Judgment that determines that the Defendants at the commencement of the subject lawsuit are in violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq.

b. Injunctive relief against the Defendants including an order to make all readily achievable alterations to the facility; or to make such facility readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities to the extent required by the ADA; and to require the Defendants to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford all offered goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities; and by failing to take such steps that may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services.

c. An award of attorney's fees, costs and litigation expenses pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12205.

d. Such other relief as the Court deems just and proper, and/or is allowable under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF NEW YORK CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

15. Plaintiff re-alleges all prior obligations as if fully set forth herein.

16. New York Law provides that it shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, being the owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employee of any place of public accommodation, resort or amusement, because of the race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, military status, sex or disability or marital status of any person, directly or indirectly..... [to deny] such person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof.....N.Y. Exec. Law Section 296(2)(a).

17. For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, "discriminatory practice" includes:

- A. A refusal to make reasonable modification in policies, practices or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodation to individuals with disabilities, unless such person can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of such facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations;
- B. A refusal to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded or denied services because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless such a person can demonstrate that taking such steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the facility, privilege, advantage or accommodation being offered or would result in an undue burden; and
- C. A refusal to remove architectural barriers, and communication barriers that are structural in nature, in existing facilities....., where such removal is readily achievable.....N.Y. Exec. Law Section 296(2)(c).

18. Pursuant to N.Y. Exec. Law Section 297(9), “Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful discriminatory practice shall have a cause of action in any court of appropriate jurisdiction for damages.”

19. Due to Defendants’ discrimination and failure to provide accessibility by removing barriers to access at its property as discussed in this Complaint, Plaintiff suffered emotional distress, humiliation, mental anguish and other injuries.

20. A place of public accommodation “shall be deemed to include ... hotels,” N.Y. Civ. Rights Law §40.

21. New York law mandates, “all persons within the jurisdiction of this state shall be entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of any place of public accommodation....” N.Y. Civ. Rights Law §40.

22. Defendants’ property is a place of public accommodation as defined in §40.

23. N.Y. Civ. Rights Law §41 states, “Any person who or any agency, bureau, corporation or association shall violate any provisions of sections forty, forty-a, forty-b or forty-two or incite the violation of any said provisions...shall for each and every violation thereof be liable to a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) to be recovered by the person aggrieved...thereby in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the plaintiff or the defendant shall reside... also, any person who shall violate any of the provisions of the foregoing section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.”

24. Plaintiff, Ms. Swartz visited Defendants’ property and encountered the discriminatory barriers discussed in this Complaint and seeks minimum statutory damages under §41.

25. By maintaining architectural barriers and policies that discriminate against people with disabilities and through the other actions described above, Defendants have, directly and/or indirectly, refused, withheld from, and denied to Plaintiff, Swartz, because of her disability, the full enjoyment of its property.

26. Plaintiff, Helen Swartz, has been damaged and will continue to be damaged by this discrimination as more fully set forth above.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court award Helen Swartz statutory damages pursuant to N.Y. Civ. Rights Law §41, and compensatory damages pursuant to N.Y. Exec. Law Section 297(9) and award Plaintiff's attorney's fees, costs and expenses incurred prosecuting this action.

Respectfully submitted
